CVC Credit supports the de-listing of Alpha FMC from the London Stock Exchange

21 October 2024

CVC Credit, the €43 billion global credit management business of CVC, is pleased to announce that it has provided debt facilities to support the de-listing of the financial services consultancy, Alpha Financial Markets Consulting plc (“Alpha FMC”), by Bridgepoint from the AIM market of the London Stock Exchange.

Headquartered in London, Alpha FMC is a consultancy focused on the asset, wealth management and insurance sectors, specialising in areas including business strategy, operations, distribution, digital transformation and regulatory compliance. Its large, 1,000 strong global client base includes 80% of the top 50 largest global asset managers. The company employs more than 900 consultants across 17 offices around the world.

Simone Zacchi, Partner at CVC Credit, commented: “Alpha FMC is a leading asset and wealth management consultancy in the UK, with a strong reputation and track record of outperformance to its peer group. We are pleased to be supporting the next phase of its growth strategy in its newly established private environment through the provision of both term loan and acquisition facilities.”

John Empson, Managing Partner and Co-Chair of CVC Credit, said: “We are pleased to be partnering with Bridgepoint once again, having supported several of their other recent acquisitions including Analysys Mason, PharmaZell and Vivacy. CVC Credit has a track record of supporting strong and stable businesses who are backed by experienced financial sponsors and this is exactly the case with Alpha FMC.”
